Summer 2017

Dear Hamilton Parents and Guardians,

For the past four years Hamilton has done away with the traditional one size fits all homework. It is understood that not everyone wants or needs additional work to do at home. In place of the daily homework, we provide homework to those who want it. It is designed for each individual student based on individual goals and need. This allows teachers to differentiate instruction to move students beyond their current level.

At Hamilton we have been providing individualized progress reports tailored to each child. This allows you to be informed how your child (ren) is performing in reading, writing, and math as well as let you know where children should be at that point in time. These reports will come out September 28th, November 8th, December 21st, February 15th, March 29th, and May 31st.

If you want work for reading, writing, and/or math you will simply indicate on the progress report when you sign and return.

Of course, at any time, you may request additional work to do with your child at home simply request that from the teacher.

Thank you

Michelle VanDerLinden
